These three young women are San Diego State College music majors, all specializing in voice. All have been active in Treble Clef and Sigma Alpha Iota both as members and officers. During the summer they brought additional recognition both to themselves and to the college music department through their excellent performances with the San Diego Light Opera Company. ## See You at Joe's!

An informal pre-game reunion dinner for San Diego State College Alumni living in the Santa Ana-Los Angeles-Citrus Belt area will be held at Joe Seminario's Chateau Madrid in Norwalk at 5:30 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 12, before the Whittier football game.

Alumni in the San Diego area planning to go to the game also are invited to attend the gathering. The early hour will allow plenty of time for a dinner gathering before attending the game at Whittier, only about six miles away.

Seminario, Aztec football star in 1940-41-42, gave these directions for reaching the Chateau Madrid, which he and his father recently opened at 1715 San Antonio Dr. in Norwalk:

From Los Angeles and area—Drive out Firestone Ave. to San Antonio Dr., the main cross street in Norwalk, and turn north about a block and a half.

From Coast highway—Turn north on Lakewood at the traffic circle in Long Beach to Firestone, then east to Norwalk.

From the Inland highway—Turn west on Firestone where it enters Highway 101 and continue to Norwalk.

White Ballot Marks Alumni Election

Officers who will guide the Alumni Association of San Diego State College through the calendar year of 1947 will be elected this month, along with 10 members of the Board of Directors who will serve for a two-year term. To the disappointment of the Nominating Committee, a complete white ballot is being offered for the first election conducted under the provisions of the Alumni Association constitution adopted this year.

The Nominating Committee met in August and nominated one slate of officers and board members which was published in the September AZTEC ALUMNI NEWS, with the expectation that additional nominations would come from the membership by petition, as provided by the constitution.

However, no nominations were forthcoming by petition, so a white ballot will go in the mail to all paid members next week. Members have the privilege of voting for write-in candidates if they wish.

Robert Breitbard '41, incumbent first vice-president, tops the Nominating Committee's slate as nominee for president. He has been active in all Alumni affairs and was greatly instrumental in the success of three Alumni events this year: the April dinner which

HOMECOMING BULLETIN

As this issue went to press, the Navy, reversing a previous agreement, announced that facilities of the Officers' Club at Camp Kidd in Balboa Park would not be available for the Alumni Homecoming Dinner Dance.

A new site for the Friday, Nov. 1 Homecoming event is now being sought. Further announcements will be made in the daily newspapers and paid Alumni Association members will receive reservation cards to be returned.

Also, it was announced that Frank Nottbusch, Jr., had resigned as Homecoming chairman because of the pressure of other duties.

Alumni to Reopen Old Collegiate Club

The Old Collegiate Club, popular meeting place of local high school and college students for weekly Friday night dances from 1936 until the war intervened in 1941, is to be reopened at the Mission Beach ballroom under sponsorship of the Alumni Association of San Diego State College.

First of the new Collegiate Club dance series will be held Friday night, Oct. 18, at Mission Beach, and they will continue weekly thereafter on Friday nights until the first of June, 1947.

Donald S. Lindstrum, Ex-'42, has been signed by the Alumni Association as manager of the club and, operating under policies set down by the Board of Directors, he will handle all business matters and will supervise personnel necessary to the operation of the club. Lindstrum formerly was associated with the club.

Through Lindstrum, the Alumni Association at first negotiated for return of the Collegiate Club to its former location in Balboa Park, but several factors, including uncertainty of the Navy's removal and unsatisfactory condition of buildings, made it necessary to go to Mission Beach. The club may return to Balboa Park later.

Lindstrum reports great interest on the part of high school students in the revival of the Collegiate Club, and he predicts a membership of from 1500 to 2000 soon will be reached.

Men students of all high schools in the area, as well as the college, may purchase yearly memberships for $1.00. Admission to each dance will be $1.00 per couple. Free parking will be provided on the south parking lot at Mission Beach, on the ocean side of the highway, with admittance only by membership card.

Because the Collegiate Club now will be sponsored by a non-profit organization, many high school students who join could indirectly be contributing to their own education. All proceeds, after rental, operating expenses and salaries of cashiers, ticket takers, guards, etc., have been paid, will go into an Alumni fund for the establishment of scholarships.

Reopening of the club on this basis has received the enthusiastic approval of educational and civic leaders, including Dr. John Carroll, county superintendent of schools; President Walter R. Hepner, of the college; Mayor Harley E. Knox; Leo Calland, city recreational director; high school principals and the Parent-Teachers' Association.

Membership cards are now on sale at all high schools and at the book store on campus. Hours will be 8 to 12.

where she stayed five and a half months. In order to keep up the library for the 17,000 men at this one camp, Riva said that they actually had to steal their electric lights and stoves to make the place usable, used shoe repair shop coupons for library cards.

G.I. libraries are conducted on an informal basis, with no "quiet" signs, no overdue notices, a simplified decimal system, and smoking and drinking cokes permitted. While at Camp Baltimore, Riva saw Lt. Ohan Kerian, then at headquarters at Reims where he was billeting officer for Special Service Shows. She also saw Adelia Mustain, former State college librarian, who was at Camp Carlisle for four months before returning to the States because of poor health.

Assignment to Deggendorf, 45 miles from the Czech border, came in Dec. '45, so Riva joined the 37th tank battalion, commanded by Col. Clayton Abrams, was there two months, during which time she took a week's leave to visit Switzerland. She spent one day at the Nuremberg trials, saw Adm. Raeder, one of the 22 ring leaders, on trial.

Among souvenirs brought home, Riva has a Nazi flag, a fur hat worn by a German on the Russian front, and a Bavarian tea set and dinner set. As this goes to press, Riva is again in Europe, having left here Sept. 19 for New York City, where she was to await first available transportation.

The name "Riva?" We wondered about it, too. It is Russian for "Rebecca," after her grandmother.

Walker Scholarship

Establishment of the $500 Ralf Marc Walker Memorial Scholarship at San Diego State College, commemorating the founder of Walker's, was announced during September by the local department store.

The scholarship will be awarded each June to a member of Walker's Hi-Debber council for study in retail merchandising at San Diego State. Awards will be made on the basis of scholarship and activities record.

Winner of the first scholarship was Beverly Lake, from Pt. Loma High School, now a freshman at State.

Walker's officials said that it was their desire, through the scholarships, to train girls, who, upon graduation, would be qualified to accept positions as buyers at Walker's or any other department store.

Announcement of the award of two scholarships also was made recently by Skull and Dagger, honorary dramatic fraternity. Winners were Eveline Barclay, Pt. Loma High graduate, and Pattie Joiner, Hoover High graduate.

DEAN OF WOMEN HONORED

Dr. Mary Mendenhall, dean of women, has been appointed to the state education committee of the American Association of University Women.

Kickoff Dinner Held

Coach W. L. (The Colonel) Terry and members of the Aztec varsity football squad got an enthusiastic sendoff from the Alumni Association when a capacity crowd of 150 turned out for the Kickoff Dinner held Sept. 20 in the campus Training School auditorium.

Assistant Football Coaches Charlie Smith, Mel Schroeder and Hilbert Crosthwaite, other members of the physical education staff, and Pres. Walter R. Hepner, also were guests of the Association at the dinner.

Hard work on the part of Bob Breitbart, athletic chairman, brought out the capacity crowd and kept Toastmaster O. W. (Junior) Todd busy with introductions.

FOUND: ONE MEMBER

The "lost" Alumni member reported last month—Iona Foster '45—reported in by letter the day the September Alumni News went to press (too late to make a correction) and declared emphatically that she never was Mrs. Erwin T. Horn, as reported. She is now living at 226 Clinton Park, San Francisco. (We are sorry for the unintentional error, and the missing copies of the Alumni News have been forwarded to you.—Ed. Note)

Sports Roundup

By BILL PHELPS

Coach Bill Terry's new Aztec football team made an auspicious debut by defeating Pomona College, 34 to 0, before 10,000 spectators in Balboa Stadium in the season opener Sept. 28. The Aztecs showed a strong line and a total of 13 backs figured in the ball carrying.

With two games, Pomona and Cal Poly, under its belt as this reaches you, the 1946 Aztec football squad is prepping for its first away-from-home tilt, against Whittier, Oct. 12.

With one of the largest and most talented squads in State College history, Coach Bill Terry can count on such old-timers as end Val Robbins, backs Stu Worden and Art Blaisdell, and several budding stars for strong support in his invasion of the Poet stronghold.

Among the newcomers who are making their bids for recognition with the best to wear the Scarlet and Black are end Leo Heaton, guard Keith Curry, running guard Bill Nelson, giant tackle Jim Boles, and backs Jack Kaiser and Jess Bryant. Cage star Barney Newlee is converting rapidly to the grid pastime and may be the eleven's outstanding kicker at season's finish.

The coaching staff, Bill Terry, Mel Schroeder, Charlie Smith, and the new addition, former line star Hilbert Crosthwaite (who is handling the junior varsity) though left shorthanded by the resignation of Roy Engle, is doing a fine job.

Several familiar faces to Aztec football fans of yore are seen on campus daily, including Louie Poluzzi, still eligible but unable to don the pads because of a back injury.

Other sports will follow football in reaching new heights of interest and achievement this season, judging from the well-known athletes on campus. Golfer Johnny Rising and tennis men Ed Brown, Howard Smith, and George Holland, are back to compete in their specialties next spring.

Boxing coach Ed Hubbert is showing the manly art to a flock of hopefuls, and several wrestlers work out frequently in the gym, aided and abetted by "Shadow" Rodriguez.

Alumni Scholarship Drive Continues

Three more scholarships have been obtained in the Alumni Association-sponsored campaign to raise a $25,000 Athletic Scholarship Fund which, once established, will be perpetuated through interest on invested capital and through the State College student body's agreement to divert a percentage of football receipts for that purpose.

The three new scholarships bring the total realized to date to seven, with a total value of more than $3000. Dr. David Jessop, chairman of the scholarship campaign committee, reported that many others have expressed interest in the campaign and that he is confident that additional scholarships will be forthcoming.

One of the new scholarships was given by the San Diego Lions Club, and another by the Milk Institute of San Diego County, consisting of the Arden Farms; Challenge Cream and Butter Association; Dairy Mart Farms, Inc.; Hages, Ltd., and Qualitee Dairy Products Co.

The third was given by four prominent citizens who requested that their names not be used and who put in $125.00 each.

The scholarship fund will be administered by the San Diego State College Foundation Fund, a non-profit corporation which receives and administers all scholarship and loan funds for the college. Scholarships will be awarded on the recommendation of the Director of Athletics.
