Announcing the Official

PWA MEMORIAL BRACELET®

Benefitting the MOTHERS OF AIDS PATIENTS and the PWA BRACELET ENDOWMENT FUND

The PWA MEMORIAL BRACELET® honors the thousands of men, women and children who have fallen to the disease called AIDS. By wearing this national symbol of unity and support in the battle against AIDS you declare your commitment to help defeat this disease which threatens every American.

The PWA MEMORIAL BRACELET® bears the name, age and date of passing of people who suffered from AIDS. This unique one-piece memorial bracelet has been custom designed for both men and women and may be obtained in gold or silver plate.

Proceeds from this program benefit MOTHER OF AIDS PATIENTS, a non-profit support organization, and the PWA BRACELET ENDOWMENT FUND to provide direct support and assistance to people with AIDS and their families. For more information call 800-248-0465 (toll free) or 213-933-0093 (Calif.).

Statement of Purpose

Upon the inability of the new San Diego Lambda Pride group to produce this year's events, an ad hoc committee was formed in the latter part of January 1988. With just over 4 months and many hours of hard work ahead, new ideas and new blood, old ideas and old blood were melded together and our Pride celebration began to unfold. For the first time we had a choice of three different sites for the Festival: Hancock Street, the old Sears parking lot in Hillcrest and the old Balboa Naval Hospital parking lot. The Rally was moved back to the Organ Pavilion, and this year the Parade will be halted for a "Minute of Silence" to remember those no longer with us.

The largest Lesbian & Gay Pride Celebration in San Diego is possible for many reasons, from businesses who donated money to volunteers who donated time. ParadeFest '88 is proud to bring you these Pride Events.

RIGHTFULLY PROUD

(THE NATIONAL PRIDE THEME)

The 1988 theme "Rightfully Proud," reflects the fact that this is an election year. As citizens of this great country we have the right and responsibility to express our opinion through our vote. With that opinion we see to it that justice prevails, and our rights are never taken away or infringed upon.

We, the Lesbian and Gay people of the United States, have the right to be proud of who we are, including what we are, no matter how diverse we collectively may be.

Our brothers and sisters before us fought battles that we can only imagine. Because of their dedication and sacrifices, we have the freedom to exercise those rights and be "Rightfully Proud."

Our community has fought and struggled for many years to become strong and alive. From the beginning, our struggle has been one of learning our strengths, as well as working together. In a hostile and threatening environment, the budding movement grew. As it grew, we grew, both individually and collectively.

We have been up against some pretty formidable foes. There was Anita Bryant, John Briggs, Lyndon LaRouche and Dorman Owens, campaigning against us with the full moral and financial support of their radical groups. Each of these attacks carried the message that we should shut up and hide, go away, or die. We didn't shut up or go away, we stood up, we spoke up and we acted up. We made our presence felt in an environment that ignored our very existence; to an entire nation that was unwilling to recognize us; and in a manner which has brought us pride as a reward. We are here, and we are definitely here to stay.

As a result of our struggle to be visible and heard, we now live in an era where gay and lesbian children are growing up realizing that they are not "the only one". For their sakes it is important that we are here. The message we give, and we sing it out loud, that we are the Lesbian and Gay Community and we are Rightfully Proud. We are Lesbian and we are Gay and we are Here ... And Here To Stay!

For those who would battle us, let's issue a warning: We are strong and there are more of us being born each day. We will not be trampled or driven from existence again. We will not be invisible or give up our drive for equality. We will always be ready to stand up, again and again. And just when you feel we've been decimated, or vanquished, we will rise up again. We are Lesbians and we are Gay and we are Here ... And Here To Stay!

GRAND MARSHALS

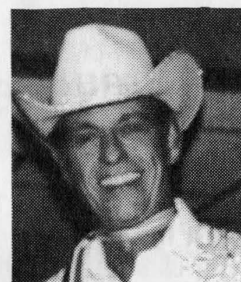

JUDY FORMAN
(The Beauty On Duty)

Judy Forman, the woman, is a loving, powerful person with a penchant for healing, who is always supportive of the Lesbian and Gay Community. It is because of this protective, loving support that Judy has the respect of many diverse and varied groups of people ("... and individuals," she says, "never forget the individuals!") It is almost impossible to talk about her without talking about her restaurant The Big Kitchen. Years ago when the Lesbian and Gay Community Center was undergoing changes and couldn't find a place to hold its Board meeting, Judy offered The Big Kitchen, and made sure there was plenty of hot coffee, at no charge. She was instrumental in the formation of our Lesbian and Gay Freedom Band and has always managed to find a place in her heart, and her restaurant for any poor soul looking for a place to feel welcome.

She is equally comfortable pouring a sassy cuppa coffee for the Congressman (offering him some well thought out advice in the process) as she is pouring fresh orange juice for a homeless woman (offering her a job washing dishes at the same time).

One of the aims of the Lesbian and Gay Movement is to be as equally accepted as anyone else, without having to apologize for who we are. At Judy's place, and in her presence, we have reached that goal. We are loved for who and what we are. Our community would have to look far and wide to find a more supportive friend than Judy Forman. Besides, when considering who to honor, we at ParadeFest '88 couldn't think of anyone we knew who loves a PARADE more than Judy.

CLINT JOHNSON

Clint Johnson is a long-time resident of San Diego, moving here from Los Angeles 28 years ago. He is a native of Phoenix, Arizona and a graduate of Arizona State University who pursued a career in teaching and the insurance field until he opened the Show Biz Supper Club in 1968. In 1978 he took over Bee Jays, then at the downtown location, merging the two in 1982.

Mr. Johnson has been a dedicated community worker doing extensive initial fundraising for the Metropolitan Community Church, Center for Social Services (a.k.a. Lesbian and Gay Men's Community Center), and continues to host benefits for numerous San Diego community organizations upon request at Bee Jay's.

Clint is a founding Board Member of the AIDS Assistance Fund of San Diego County, a founding member of the San Diego Gay Rodeo Association, founder and choreographer of the internationally renowned "Bee Jay Broncos," and was Emperor XIV of the Imperial Court of San Diego.

Among the many awards he has received from the San Diego community include: "Man of the Year"; "Humanitarian of the Year"; "Show Director"; "Choreographer of the Year"; "Mayor of Hillcrest"; and he is a member of the "San Diego Hall of Fame".

HONORARY GRAND MARSHAL

SHARON KOWALSKI

Sharon Kowalski was chosen as this year's Honorary Grand Marshal in conjunction with Pride Events around the country. Sharon is being so honored because her lover Karen Thompson has been denied access to her since a near fatal car accident several years ago. This accident left Sharon in a near vegetative state. For a time, Karen worked with her in the hospital and was able to rehabilitate her enough to have her type messages on a typewriter. One such message said, "I love you. Please get me out of here." After learning the nature of her relationship to their daughter, Sharon's parents forbade any contact with Karen ever again. Karen took the case to court and won visiting privileges, whereupon Sharon's parents simply removed her from the hospital and moved her to a different state. Karen is very worried that Sharon is no longer receiving proper care as she has regressed into a fetal position and is no longer communicating with anyone.

This case points out the legal non-recognition of our relationships. Lovers have no legal rights to visitation in case of disability. We have no rights in cases of mental instability and have no rights in case of death. Parents and other "immediate family" can supercede the wishes and needs of the lover, even override written instructions from the deceased should they choose to. In heterosexual marriages, the spouse has preceding legal rights, whereas in our relationships, the spouse has none.

There is a nationwide effort to petition the parents and the courts to reinstate Karen Thompson as the legal guardian of her spouse. All lesbians and gay men and their friends are urged to become involved, as this could become a tragic case in your life. To find out more about this case and what you can do to help, write to the Sharon Kowalski Defense Fund.

And remember, when you see the empty wheelchair in the Parade, Sharon Kowalski is one of us and deserves our support. Bring Sharon home!

The First Annual Pride Prom

by Herb King

We've all fantasized about going to our high school or college proms hand-in-hand with our same-sex beau or belle. While it's true that some brave pioneers have established our rights to do so at school dances and at Disneyland, for example, most of us don't really feel comfortable about asserting those rights.

With this in mind, and feeling that our increasingly-popular Gay Pride Weekend needed a really gala opening night, I conceived of the not-so-original idea of the "Pride Prom." This prom will be a wonderfully enjoyable celebration of our own self-esteem and an outlet for our fantasies, but it will also give us an annual opportunity to raise money to benefit worthwhile gay and lesbian causes and activities, making us feel really good about ourselves.

This year the Lesbian and Gay Men's Community Center will be the first beneficiary of our Prom. This is particularly appropriate since the Center is our only full-service social service agency and is also our longest established non-religious, non-political organization.

Come to the PROM — YOUR PROM — and dance the night away to the big band sound of the Swing Band from the Los Angeles Great American Yankee Freedom Band. It will be a night to remember, and, if you don't already have a special person in your life, perhaps you'll find him/her at the Prom!

Front Runners San Diego

Phyllis Miller, Co-Chair

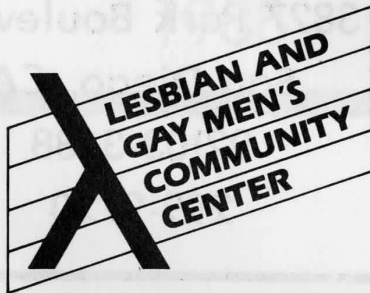

Front Runners San Diego was formed seven years ago for the purpose of providing encouragement and support to lesbians and gay men interested in running. Front Runners San Diego is part of a large network of Front Runner clubs. Sixteen North American cities, including two Canadian cities, have an active Front Runner club.

Front Runners San Diego has grown steadily throughout the years. Membership now, including runners and walkers, has grown to approximately 120.

One of the most striking characteristics of Front Runners San Diego is the diversity of its membership. Runners and walkers of all levels, whether beginning, recreational or competitive, participate in two weekly runs and various 5K runs, 10K runs, half-marathons and marathons throughout the year.

In addition to running-related activities, Front Runners holds various social events for club members. Pasta feeds are held the night before major runs, and the club puts on an annual banquet and holiday parties.

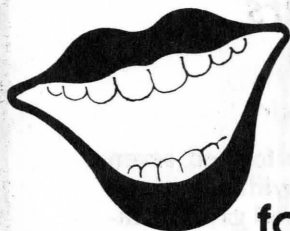

Front Runners San Diego takes pride in promoting a healthy lifestyle!

The Lesbian and Gay Men's Community Center was established in 1973 to provide support to San Diego's Lesbian and Gay Men's Community. The Center offers a wide range of programs. AIDS and Non-AIDS Counseling are available for both individuals and groups. The AIDS response program includes counseling for HIV+, ARC, AIDS, family members, lovers, friends and the worried well. AIDS-related groups available include: HIV+, Women and AIDS issues, and a PWA group. For people interested in a more nontraditional approach to services, the Center is establishing a program based on a holistic approach to wellness. The first group of many in this program is ALIVE and WELL, a positive approach to living.

The Center also offers many non-AIDS programs including individual and couples counseling. Center groups include: Lesbian Coming Out Group, Gay Men's Coming Out Group, Lesbian Support Group, the third Sunday of the month Lesbian Educational Program and a closed Lesbian Couples Group. Other Center programs include Military Counseling, Speakers Bureau, Phone Counseling and an Information and Referral for Lesbian and Gay Businesses in San Diego. The Center also is the meeting place for several other community groups: Gay Youth Alliance, Slightly Older Lesbians, Men's Center, San Diego Lesbian and Gay Archives and the RISE program. For information on any services call 692-2077.

VOLUNTEER THANK YOU

The spirit of ParadeFest '88 can truly be felt through the energy of our volunteers. Wonderful plans and dreams are important; however they are only words on paper until our community comes together, bringing our dreams to life.

Volunteers are the most important resource required to make our Pride events happen. People working security, the Buffer Zone, contingency monitors, and first aid are responsible for the safety of all Parade, Rally, and Festival guests and participants. Other volunteers in the Parade blow up balloons, decorate the Parade route, and carry banners. At the Festival, volunteers staff childcare, sell merchandise, serve beer, and provide information. Volunteers are also running the sound and lighting, performing on stage, and interpreting for the hearing impaired.

ParadeFest '88 wishes to extend our most sincere appreciation to you, THE VOLUNTEERS. We thank you!

THE PARADE

Saturday, June 11, 1988, will see thousands of people lining the streets of Hillcrest, awaiting the appearance of the first contingent in this, the 14th Annual Lesbian & Gay Pride Parade. The diversity that makes our community so unique can be seen among such entries as S.A.G.E. (Seniors Active in a Gay Environment), the American Civil Liberties Union, the Lesbian & Gay Men's Community Center, North County Gay Association, the Flame, San Diego Sisterhood and even an Avon lady. As in past parades we will be joined by groups from outside San Diego County. Highlighting the Parade will be Sistah Boom, a lesbian 30-piece percussion group from San Francisco, Parents and Friends of Lesbians and Gays (PFLAG) from Orange County and Supervisor Tom Nolan from San Mateo County.

For the first time in the history of San Diego Lesbian & Gay Pride, the entire Parade will be halted to observe one minute of silence in remembrance of those who have died of AIDS and those who are no longer here to celebrate with us. Over 6,000 lavender and white balloons will be released to signal the beginning of the minute of silence. Balloons will be available along the Parade route and in the Parade line-up area.

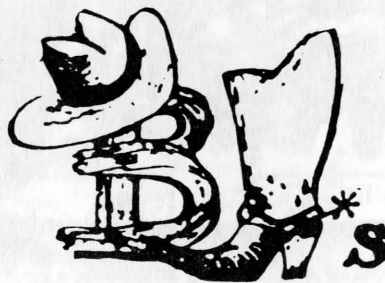

The Parade will step off at 12 noon. It starts at Laurel & 6th, proceeding north on 6th to Thorn, west on Thorn to 5th, turning north on 5th and continuing to Robinson, passing the reviewing stand in the Mayfair parking lot (5th & Robinson), turning east on Robinson to 6th and south on 6th to Balboa Drive, where we will proceed into Balboa Park ending at Laurel.

San Diego ParadeFest '88 contingent prepares to march in the Long Beach Lesbian & Gay Pride Parade.

THE RALLY

The Pride Rally serves as a forum to present the different aspects of San Diego's Lesbian and Gay political views.

Our community's political beliefs are as varied as our lifestyles, and a sincere effort to reflect this is evident in the choice of speakers for this year's Rally.

The highlight of this year's Pride Rally will be featured speaker Robin Tyler. Tyler, a Lesbian feminist comic is emerging as a leading figure in the Lesbian and Gay Rights Movement. Robin produced the Main Rally at the March on Washington which made history as the largest group of performers ever assembled for any political rally — performing to the largest audience. In 1988, along with producing two major festivals — the West Coast and the Southern Women's Music & Comedy Festivals — she has been invited to appear in Australia, Amsterdam and England. She will also be performing at our Festival Saturday evening.

Also speaking will be San Diego Representatives Republican activist Susan Jester, Democratic activist Linda Sabo, lesbian activist Diane Germain, AIDS activist Albert Bell and political activist Nicole Ramirez Murray.

Please join us at the Organ Pavilion directly following the Parade and share the Pride, for we are "Here ... And Here To Stay."

THE FESTIVAL — A YEAR OF FIRSTS

It all started as a dream that a lot of people shared separately for many years. A dream for a world-class Gay and Lesbian Pride Festival, to share with the world our pride in who we are.

This year the dreamers came together and dedicated themselves to making their dream a reality. In 3 short months, through trial and error, and trying again and again, we have achieved our dream.

Support came from everywhere in our community, and from all over the state people were calling and asking how they could help. Without these volunteers, the Festival could never have been what it is.

Remarkable achievements and dedication by everyone involved kept us going through the rough times, and the assistance and support we received from the businessmen and community leaders of San Diego proved invaluable.

When we were told "it won't work", we worked as hard as we could to make it work. And we're very proud of how it has worked. Our community deserves the best, and we have given our best. Here's to you, San Diego. And here's to all in our lesbian and gay community. We'll never be the same again!

Together, we are Here ... And Here To Stay!

ENTERTAINMENT '88: SOMETHING FOR EVERYBODY!!

As individual lesbians and gay men we comprise over 10% of the total population. It has been said that "We are everywhere." And, indeed we are. Just looking around the gay and lesbian community of San Diego will tell you that. And not only are we everywhere, we are "everyone" as well. We are from every culture and every part of the world. We are Democrats, Republicans, Libertarians. We are Jews, Catholics, Protestants, Atheists, Pagans, and Goddess worshippers. We are a diverse community and this weekend we have come together to celebrate our community as well as our diversity. And this year our festival entertainment celebrates our diversity and our unity as well. We have something for everybody.

We have worked very hard these last months to bring to you the very best in entertainment from around the State of California, including some of your favorites from our own backyard.

Starting the weekend off in grand style and energy will be Sistah Boom, an invigorating all-percussion group of wild women from San Francisco. If you missed them in Washington, you're in for a treat. So, don't be late! They kick off with a boom at 3 pm Saturday! That afternoon we've been graced with Judi Friedman, a folk musician from San Francisco as well. If you saw her in Sacramento, you won't want to miss her on our stage. Later in the afternoon, following the Awards Ceremony (where the biggest and best of our parade get what's coming to them) we will present our Los Angeles contingent. You'll see the LA Freedom Band and Swing Band (fresh from the Pride Prom on Friday night), Troopers — a comedy and farce team, and then, for all you wonderful women out there, a wonderful woman: Robin Tyler. Bring your manfriends along too. Maybe they'll learn something.

BEYOND THERAPY

SAN DIEGO FINEST CITY FREEDOM BAND

WHEI WHEI T'NANGO

HELEN REDDY

The first to open the doors in the early 70's for the wave of Australian talent that continues to roll in, Helen Reddy was born into an Australian show business and began performing professionally as a very early age.

In 1966, having toured the length and breadth of Australia, and been a regular on several television shows, Helen entered a contest which promised the winner a trip to New York and an audition with an American record company. Helen beat out 1,357 other contestants to emerge the winner and left for New York shortly afterwards with her three-year-old daughter in tow. However, she was sloughed off without the promised audition by record company executives who had been anticipating a male group.

Helen and her daughter stayed on in the United States anyway and after five frustrating years, she contracted with Capitol to make one 45" single record. The song she cut became her debut hit, I Don't Know How To Love Him from Jesus Christ Superstar. But it was a song Helen penned, I Am Woman; that was to become her first number one song, garnering her a Grammy and becoming the anthem for the feminist movement. More top ten material followed and records such as Leave Me Alone (Ruby Red Dress), Angie Baby, Delta Dawn, and You and Me Against The World on gold and platinum selling albums led to an international multimedia career.

Helen has performed live on six continents in such places as Carnegie Hall and Lincoln Center in New York, the Royal Albert Hall and the Palladium in London and the Opera House in Sydney. Her television specials have been seen in more than 40 countries and Disney's release of her 1977 film Pete's Dragon on video cassette continues to attract a new generation of fans.

Although she still performs occasionally, most of Helen's time in the past few years has been taken up with writing and actively managing her own production company. In addition to music videos and television specials, Helen Reddy, Inc. will next year produce its first full-length film, to be shot entirely in Australia.

Of the many honors she has received over a long career, Helen most enjoys the tulip named for her in Holland and grows the reddish-violet bulb in her California garden. Helen served for three years as Commissioner of Parks and Recreation for the State of California. She resides in Santa Monica with her husband, Milton Ruth, her son, and a large dog.

Then, bring your dancing shoes and wear your best leather jacket, because we've got something special for all you rockers out there. A local underground band, Whei Whei T'Nango and their friends Glass, from Long Beach, will be here to change your mind about Festival entertainment and make you want to get that tattoo you've always wanted. It's the first Festival performance for both of them, so be out there with a big welcome. For those of you who need some comic relief, we've got our own Beyond Therapy as well. And emceeding the evening we have Danny Williams, comic extraordinaire from San Francisco (straight -- oops, "gaily forward" from the Long Beach Pride event). He'll be back on Sunday morning too, so if you miss Saturday (something you don't want to do) be out by 11am Sunday!

Also performing both days will be our own begowned Georgia Payne and Co. (featuring a surprise guest who really had to clean out his closet for this one!) and Beyond Therapy.

Now, it's Sunday and you're tired, your feet are sore, you couldn't dance another five minutes if your life depended on it. But wait, there's more!!

Opening Sunday morning are the darlings of our community, that glee club with xylophones, the San Diego Finest City Freedom Band. Something that's sure to wake you all up! Clint Johnson brings his country charm to ya'll for the high noon hour, then it's Moment's Notice with Sue Palmer. Ladies, wake up for this one! The rest of the afternoon we have a lot of that "own backyard" stuff we mentioned at the beginning, performers who've been there at our fundraisers, parties, and picnics: The Egomaniacs (comedy featuring Lawrence Nass and Margaret Gillette-Nass), musical magic from Fundi, Vicki Maggioro of Soho, and Chez and David.

Find your seats early on Sunday, because in addition to the above, we have more homecooking from Christopher Andrews and Beyond Therapy. But don't get up!! Save that seat for our big finale. She performed most recently (and memorably as well) in Sacramento this last May when 20,000 of us gathered to march for our rights. Our headliner, the radiant Helen Reddy, will join us in our pride and celebration Sunday night.

See? Something for everybody. We hope it's not only an opportunity to see your favorite entertainment, but your friends as well, an opportunity to expand your ideas of fun and celebration, an opportunity to take pride in your individuality as well as our diversity.

So, drink your juice and take your vitamins. You'll be needing your energy. We'll see you there!

Brought to you by ParadeFest '88 Entertainment Committee: Andrea Villa, Kenny Barrera, Laura Sutherland
